DESIGNED to frighten "evil spirits" out of the tin mines, this Bolivian tin miner's costume was fashioned from a giant condor, world's largest flying bird, which he had captured. The miner, Jaime Benitez, leads a folk dancing group at La Paz, Bolivia, whose hobby is to don weird costumes and dance.

Indictments in Jackson Rights Case

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Authorities locked under tight security today the names and number of persons indicted by a federal grand jury for the Philadelphia, Miss., and Vernon Dahmer civil rights slayings.

U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox, who accepted the indictments from a 23-member jury Monday, ordered particulars of the charges kept secret until arrests are made.

He did say, however, "it will be permissible to say that indictments have been returned in the Philadelphia and Dahmer cases."

Slain at Philadelphia in the summer of 1964 were Michael Schwerner, 23, and Andrew Goodman, 20—two white civil rights workers from New York — and James E. Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro who had accompanied them into Neshoba County.

After their bodies were dug out of a newly constructed earthen dam on a farm near Philadelphia, the Federal Bureau of Investigation charged that the deaths resulted from a "Klan assassination plot."

Among those previously charged in the case—based on federal charges of conspiracy to violate civil rights—were Sheriff Lawrence Rainey of Neshoba County and his chief deputy, Cecil Price, who is now a candidate for sheriff.

The original indictments in the Philadelphia and the Dahmer cases were dismissed later on grounds of improper composition of the grand jury.

The jury which returned the latest indictments included five Negroes and six women.

The other case involved the January 1966 fire bomb slaying of Dahmer, a 58-year-old Negro businessman who was helping in a voter-registration drive sponsored by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Dahmer was burned fatally in the fire which destroyed his home and nearby grocery, but he managed to save members of his family from the flames.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation charged that the 15 persons originally indicted by a federal grand jury were members of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Among those charged last year as part of a conspiracy to burn Dahmer's home was Sam H. Bowers, a Laurel coin machine distributor identified by the FBI as the imperial wizard of the White Knights.

Time Magazine Editor Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry R. Luce, editorial chairman of Time magazine, died early this morning in Phoenix, Ariz., a spokesman for the magazine here said today. Luce was 68.

The spokesman said there were no details on the cause of his death except that it occurred at about 3 a.m. at the Luce family home in Phoenix.

Wants War Declaration or No Bombs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph S. Clark pressed today for Senate acceptance of his proposal to require the United States to declare war on North Vietnam before U.S. bombing attacks against the north can continue.

Clark attacked U.S. policy in Vietnam in a three-hour Senate speech Monday as President Johnson told newsmen he doesn't think new types of American attacks on the north have dimmed peace hopes.

Clark, a Pennsylvania Democrat, is offering his war declaration proposal as an amendment to the administration's $4.5-billion supplemental military authorization bill for Vietnam.

The House has passed the authorization measure. Clark said he would ask a vote today on the bombing amendment and on another that would require a war declaration if U.S. forces in Vietnam exceed 500,000 men.

The President, who met with newsmen in the Oval Room of the White House, responded carefully to a question asking if U.S. mining of North Vietnam rivers plus Army and Navy artillery bombardment of the north represented a step-up in U.S. military activities.

Johnson was emphatic in denying the moves were a "step-up" or escalation, but said, "it is fair to say that this is action over and above what has been taking place in the last few weeks. Certainly it is more far-reaching."

He said the goal of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam has been to hinder North Vietnamese military activities and not to halt infiltration altogether. "We never thought it would stop infiltration," he said.

The bombing has been successful, he said, because it has tied up some 500,000 North Vietnamese in repairing bomb damage. These people might otherwise have been active militarily, he added.

Johnson said U.S. policy remains aimed at producing peace.

The measure of success is not whether you have a tough problem to deal with, but whether it's the same problem you had last year—John Foster Dulles, former U.S. secretary of state.

Senate Opens Space Tragedy Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate space committee opens the first public inquiry into the Apollo spacecraft tragedy today in the wake of a space agency report that risks of fire had been misjudged.

The testimony from top space officials comes exactly one month after the fire that killed three astronauts.

"We thought it better to have the testimony in open session," Chairman Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., said.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, which has been handling the principal investigation of the disaster at Cape Kennedy, has so far issued three reports on its progress.

But today's hearing marks the first time the agency's officials have made themselves available to an outside body to answer questions raised by the fire.

In a report released Saturday,

NASA said that "continued alertness to the possibility of fire had become dulled by previous ground experience and six years of successful manned missions."

The risks of uncontrollable fire had been misjudged, the agency said. The report called for a number of corrective measures.

NASA chief James E. Webb, Deputy Director Robert C. Seamans Jr. and George E. Mueller, head of the manned space office, are expected to testify today.

NASA said in the report it is possible the investigators will be unable to pinpoint the exact cause of the fire, but that electrical malfunction is regarded as the "most likely source."

Other causes such as chemical reactions and spontaneous combustion are still being considered, the space agency said.

The review board conducting the inquiry is expected to conclude its work by the end of March. Disassembly of the space capsule and minute examination of the parts is still going on.

"The risk of fire that could not be controlled or from which escape could not be made was considerably greater than was recognized when the procedures for the conduct of the test were established," Webb said in a statement released with the report.

"The bursting of the capsule," he said, "happened in such a way that the flames, as they rushed toward the rupture and exhausted through it, traveled over and around the astronauts' couches. Under these conditions, and with just a few seconds of time available, the astronauts could not reach the hatch and open it."

"This fire indicates that a number of items related to the design and performance of the environmental control unit will require the most careful examination and may require redesign."

A pound cake baked in a loaf pan will have unusual (and old-time) flavor if you add very finely cut candied orange peel and cataway seeds. Call the result English Seed Cake.

BRIDGE - LUNCHEON AT HOPE COUNTRY CLUB

Spring Flowers such as acacia and carnations graced the Hope Country Club for the Ladies Bridge - Luncheon on Thursday, February 23. A tasty meal was served at noon to 27 club members.

In the afternoon bridge was played at six tables. Winners were: high, Mrs. Marian Holder; second high, Mrs. Emmet Wassell; game, Mrs. H. C. Whitworth; consolation, Mrs. Thomas Hays. Hostesses were: Mrs. C. P. Tolleson, Mrs. Freddie Glaze and Mrs. George Frazier.

COUNTRY CLUB SCENE OF POTLUCK, CARDS

A potluck supper and cards entertainment was held at the Hope Country Club on Saturday night, February 25. Mexican red and pink paper flowers made bright decorations on the individual tables where the meal was eaten. The serving table held an arrangement of these flowers and cranberry candles in silver. About 45 enjoyed the potluck supper which had barbequed beef for the main course.

Eight tables of bridge and one of Trippoli were played. High scorer for the women was Mrs. Jim James and for the men, Homer Beyerley. L. L. Webb won the game prize, and E. E. Wasell received the travelling prize. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Petre, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Owen, and Martin Pool, Jr.

Flirtatious Eyes

Eyes are made to flirt with. And to help them misbehave there is a bounty of beautiful, new, pressed powder eye shadows that are designed to give the eyes a subtle, young look. This season's eyes are more natural and softly in focus because they're made up in powdery pastel colors that make them all flutter and shimmering.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — NBC's musical adaptation of "Jack and The Beanstalk" was a fan-cy Hollywood production, an elaborate combination of cartoon and musical comedy.

It was the season's second adaptation of the children's fairy tale, but the first, on CBS a couple of months ago, was a simple and very modest effort, designed exclusively for the young viewers.

In this last version, Jack — a most appealing little boy named Bobby Riba was accompanied by a jolly peddler up the bean vine to the land of the terrible giant. Because the peddler was played by Gene Kelly, all adventures led to pleasant dances and songs.

It was a happy hour, one of the few children's programs that an older viewer could actually enjoy thoroughly.

CBS's "The 21st Century" is one of the most stimulating and intelligent programs of the season, whether the subject at hand be transportation of the future, moon travel or, as Sunday night, genetic research and experimentation.

The program showed frogs that scientists have produced from only one parent. Discussed, too, were the possibilities of selective breeding of humans as well as suggestions of how close we are to cracking some of the mysteries of birth.

NBC's Telephone Hour Sunday night was more a feature story on the annual explosion that occurs in a small Belgian village than it was a report on this year's jazz festival. But it was interesting even to people milk-who can take that kind of music or leave it alone.

Best part was sitting vicariously through the first rehearsal of a new number by Benny Goodman and his sextet before their appearance.

ABC, still making decisions about its fall program schedule, says that still undecided are the late "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," "Time Tunnel," "Troop," "The Iron Horse," "Rango," and "The Fugitive."

In listing 16 programs, including two movie nights, that will definitely be continued, the network spokesman omitted "The Monroes," "Love On a Rooftop," "Green Hornet," and "The Phyllis Diller Show."

Thus, it would appear they are definitely out of the lineup.

Kumiss, an intoxicating fermented liquor popular in central Asia, is made from mare's milk.

Tar Heels Climb Into Third Spot

By BEN OLAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

North Carolina's Tar Heels climbed into third place in the next-to-last poll of the 1966-67 major college basketball season, Boston College moved back into the Top Ten and UCLA was the unanimous leader for the seventh consecutive week today.

The latest balloting of The Associated Press' national panel based on games through last Saturday gave UCLA all 32 first-place votes.

Louisville held the runner-up position while the sports writers and broadcasters participating in the poll placed North Carolina in the No. 3 spot, a gain of two positions.

UCLA lifted its record to 23-0 by trouncing Washington 71-43 and Washington State 100-78 last week. Louisville split two games, beating Drake 86-63 before bowing to Wichita 84-78. The Cardinals have a 23-3 mark.

North Carolina, 20-3, downed Maryland and Virginia Tech. Kansas, winner of Oklahoma State and Missouri, held fourth place. The Tar Heels drew 212 points based on 10 points for a first place, 9 for second etc., and edged Kansas by only eight points.

Princeton advanced one notch to fifth after defeating Columbia 97-45 and Cornell 81-66 for a 22-2 mark. Western Kentucky, beaten by Murray 75-69, slipped from third to sixth.

Houston, which defeated West Texas and Creighton, remained in seventh place. Tennessee rushed up one place to eighth after beating Auburn while Texas Western, 19-5, also moved up one place to ninth.

Boston College replaced Syracuse in the rankings. The Eagles have won 17 games and lost only two. Syracuse lost to St. John's, N.Y. 71-64 and Canisius, 68-64, its third and fourth setbacks of the campaign.

The final poll will be taken after this Saturday's games and the results will be announced next Monday.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses and total points on a 10-9 etc basis:

1. UCLA (32) 320
2. Louisville 253
3. North Carolina 212
4. Kansas 204
5. Princeton 176
6. Western Kentucky 139
7. Houston 135
8. Tennessee 74
9. Texas Western 52
10. Boston College 42

Hull Has Chance for 50 Goals

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Hull of Chicago, with 40 goals thus far in the National Hockey League season, has a good chance of scoring 50 goals for the third year.

No other NHL player has scored 50 goals more than once. Only Bernie Geoffrion and Maurice Richard have had a 50-goal season.

Stan Mikita of Chicago leads in points with 78, followed by Hull with 59 and Norm Ullman of Detroit with 55.

Mikita is far ahead in assists with 50. Phil Goyette of New York is second with 41.

Steve Rymal, Michigan State junior, plays on the varsity basketball and baseball teams. He's a second baseman.

Bobcats to Entertain Texarkana

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Star Sports Writer

Jones Field House will be the site of tonight's non-conference basketball battle between the Hope Bobcats of Region 4AA and the Class AAA Arkansas High Razorbacks of Texarkana.

The two teams usually meet at least once each year on a mutual open conference date on the basketball schedule. Despite the difference in classifications on the state level of the teams, the match almost always goes right down to the final wire.

For example, in last year's contest, which was played at Texarkana, the Cats led all the way only to fall to a last minute comeback by the Hogs, 63-61.

Although neither team is at the top of their respective conference both have stayed right in the middle of action through the season. The Bobcats, though they knocked out Nate Collins, 157, fell short of a state tournament San Francisco, 8; Paul Rojas, berth managed to beat both of 133, San Pedro, Calif., knocked out Ray Coleman, Phoenix, Fairview, at one time during the season.

For Texarkana the game should offer good preparation for their Class AAA state tournament competition which is coming up next week.

The B-game will begin at 6:30 p.m. tonight with the Senior game to follow immediately.

The Bobcats will play their last 4AA game of this season Thursday night when they travel to Camden for duel with the Panthers in what will be their final game of the '67 basketball season.

Lema Award Meet Won by Beard

MARCO ISLAND, Fla. (AP)

A 4-under-par 68 won the first annual Tony Lema Memorial Tournament, and $500, for golf pro Frank Beard.

Deadlocked behind him at 70 Monday on the 6-661-yard Marco Island Country Club Course were Bob Toski, Raymond Floyd, Andy Bejan and Gay Brewer. They won $415 each.

Lema, who was pro at Marco Island for a year, was killed last year in a plane crash.

Free Things Not Easy for Wilt

NEW YORK (AP) — When basketball player Wilt Chamberlain has to work for what he gets, he is a statistical wonder. But give him something free and he falls flat on his percent-age.

The Philadelphia 76er super pro, working harder than ever at all phases of the game, leads the National Basketball Association in field goal percentage and rebounds and is third in assists and fourth in scoring, statistics showed today.

After hitting 31 straight shots last week — one short of the record which he tries to break tonight against Cincinnati — Chamberlain raised his field goal percentage to 69.6 per cent.

He has hauled in 1,635 rebounds, or 24.4 a game, and scored 1,659 points, 24.8 a game. He also has assisted on 510 baskets, 7.6 a contest, more than any other big man in NBA history.

But stand him at the free throw line, unguarded and unrushed, and he hits only 44.2 per cent.

Adrian Smith of Cincinnati tops the league with 89.9 per cent.

Rick Barry of San Francisco remains the leader in scoring with 2,393 points for a 36.8 point a game average. He is followed by Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati with 2,052 or a 30.6 average, and Jerry West of Los Angeles with 1,722 points, 29.2.

Guy Rodgers of Chicago leads in assists with 782, or 11.3 a game, ahead of Robertson's 713 and 10.6.

Walt Bellamy of New York followed Chamberlain in field goal percentage at 51.3 per cent, and Bill Russell of Boston is the runner-up to Wilt in rebounds with 1,463 or 21.8 a game.

How Its Done

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Old pro Riehl Guerin showed the young fellows how it's done, with a left hook to the chin in his 19-point second half led St. Louis past Detroit 105-94 Monday night in the only National Basketball Association game scheduled.

The victory kept the Hawks in second place in the Western Division.

The 34-year-old player-coach of the Hawks finished with 25 points, helping the club end a five-game losing streak. His big second half was needed to offset an 18-point last half by Edie Miles of the Pistons.

Guerin dazzled a crowd of 8,156 in Kansas City with his drives and jumpers. He even threw in a long bank shot and a long two-hander, Joe Caldwell scored 20, Zelmo Beaty 23 and Bill Bridges 17 plus 15 rebounds for St. Louis.

The victory gave St. Louis a 32-38 record, one game ahead of third-place Los Angeles, 30-38, last year with $136,261.

Spanish Player Wins Cup Meet

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP) — Spanish Davis Cup player Jose Gisbert defeated Richard Russell of Jamaica 6-4, 6-4 in the first round of an international tennis tournament.

Nardin's Byrd, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nardin of North Bay Village, Fla., led the 2-year-old pacer in money won last year with $136,261.

Leachville Still Rated the Best

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

For the second straight week a pair of Class AA powers, Leachville and Harrison, occupied the top two positions in The Associated Press Arkansas High School basketball poll.

Leachville drew 11 first place votes and 137 points from the panel of 14 sports writers and broadcasters participating in the poll. It marked the ninth straight week for the Lions to either hold or share the top spot in the poll.

Harrison, last year's poll champion, got two first place votes and 116 points for second place. Both the Lions and Gobblins have 29-1 season records through Saturday.

The season's final poll will be released next week.

Blytheville moved into third place with 98 points and North Little Rock dropped one notch to fourth place with 91 points. Greenbrier retained the No. 5 spot and Whitehall clung to the No. 6 position.

Rounding out the top ten in order were Fort Smith Northside, Jonesboro, Springdale and Hot Springs.

Results of the poll, with first place votes and team records through Saturday in parentheses and total points at right:

1. Leachville (11) (29-1) 137
2. Harrison (2) (29-1) 116
3. Blytheville (21-4) 98
4. North Little Rock (18-4) 91
5. Greenbrier (43-2) 79
6. Whitehall (29-3) 68
7. FS Northside (16-6) 67
8. Jonesboro (17-10) 34
9. Springdale (21-4) 23
10. Hot Springs (16-6) 21

Others receiving votes, listed alphabetically: Altheimer Martin, Camden Fairview, Gosnell, Mountain Home, Oil Trough, Palestine, Russellville and Trumann.

Foster Wants to Fight Dick Tiger

By TOM SEPPY

Associated Press Sports Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Washington's Bobby Foster wants to fight Dick Tiger for the light heavyweight boxing title but all Argentina's Andres Selva wants at the moment is another bout with Foster.

Selva says he didn't understand the referee when he was knocked out in 2:30 of the second round of their 10-rounder Monday night before an overflow crowd of 3,050.

"I was able to continue fighting," Selva said through an interpreter in his dressing room after the fight. "I didn't understand what he was saying. I was waiting for the count of nine and then I thought the round was over, so I went to my corner."

"I didn't know he stopped the fight. There was nothing wrong with me. If I was able to understand, I would have jumped up and continued fighting."

Foster, 27, ranked 10th by Ring Magazine and second by the World Boxing Association, said he was puzzled by Selva's style in the first round and again early in the second.

"It took me a little while to figure out his crouching style...he's a smart fighter," said Foster. "But I caught him with a left hook to the chin in the second that stunned him...then I hit with a hard right and as he was going down I hit him with another left that put him away."

Foster, 173, was nine pounds heavier and seven inches taller than his 5-foot-8 opponent. He said he wants to fight Tiger "or any of the top five light heavyweights."

Foster's victory was his 24th in 28 bouts, 19 on knockouts. Selva, 35, suffered his 43rd loss against 159 victories and 35 draws.

Selva, ranked fifth by Ring Magazine and 10th by the World Boxing Association, is the South American champion.

Search on for Relics of Basketball

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A nationwide search is under way for basketball relics and souvenirs — the older the better.

"We need memorabilia as much as we need money," says Lee Williams, executive secretary of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, which is scheduled to open later this year.

Peg Fleming in Defense of Skate Title

By MARTIN ZUCKER

VIENNA (AP) — Peggy

Fleming opened defense of her title — and she is favored to keep it — today in the World 23 Figure Skating Championships.

The 18-year-old brunette from Colorado Springs, Colo., who also is U.S. champion, and Austrian Emmerich Danzer, 22, the defending men's champion, were considered in a class by themselves.

The other defending champions, Ludmila Belousova, 31, and her husband, Oleg Protopopov, 34, of Russia, in the pairs, and Diana Towler, 20, and Bernard Ford, 19, of England, in the dance, also were favored.

However, there was some speculation that age might be catching up with the Russian pair champions.

Ron Ludington, U.S. bronze medalist in the 1960 Olympics and coach of U.S. champions Cynthia and Ronald Kauffmann, brother and sister from Seattle, Wash., who were third in the world meet last year, said:

"I competed against the Protopopovs nine years ago, and they aren't what they used to be. Oleg's muscles aren't flexible. He is aging fast."

The main competition for the 22-year-old Danzer is expected from fellow Austrian Wolfgang Schwarz, U.S. champion Gary Visconti, 21, of Detroit and Scott Allen of Smoke Rise, N.J.

Today's compulsory figures competition in all four classes was set for the indoor Danube Park Hall rink. The free skating events in the five-day championships will be held outdoors on the Vienna Skating Club rink.

Whitehall Defending A Title

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Defending champion Whitehall, ranked sixth in The Associated Press Arkansas high school poll, collides with McGehee at 6 p.m. today in the second day of the Class A senior boys state basketball tournament.

In other action Mena battles Mulberry at 9:30 p.m. and Charleston opposed Brinkley at 2 p.m.

In Monday's games, Altheimer Martin, the only all-Negro team in the meet, rolled to an opening round victory over Hamburg, 65-62. Green Forest best Waldo 57-45 and Bay stopped Rector 74-50.

Jackie Ridges led Martin with 24 points and Robert Aduray added 16 while Jimmy Smith scored 28 for Hamburg.

Bobby Faulkenberry tallied 22 points and Ronnie Masters 20 to lead Bay over Rector. Carroll Clayton led the losers with 20.

Green Forest pulled away from Waldo in the second half after the teams battled to a 26-26 halftime draw. Stephen Stafford scored 16 points for Green Forest and Troy Foreman had 14 for Waldo.

Marichal Is Determined to Get Pay

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

"Manager-second baseman" Juan Marichal says he's tired of reading the same thing and unless the San Francisco Giants do something about it, he will sit out this season.

What Marichal, who says he already has returned two contracts, wants to read is a pact with a $125,000-figure on it.

The Giants reportedly are offering him $90,000, an estimated $15,000 increase over last season, to pitch, not to manage or play second base as he currently is doing for his own softball team in the Dominican Republic.

"We're doing pretty good," Marichal said Tuesday. "We played 10 games already and we won six or seven."

San Francisco might have trouble winning six of 10 if they don't have Marichal on the mound.

The star right-hander, 25-6 last season, also said:

"I told Mr. Feeney (General Manager Charles Feeney) that if all the contracts are going to be the same, he should stop sending them."

While Marichal was waiting for satisfaction, pitcher Jim Bunning found some — a reported $80,000 worth — with the Philadelphia Phillies, who were helped by a good game of golf.

The salary, an estimated $10,000 boost, makes the 35-year-old Bunning the highest-paid player in Phillie history.

The veteran right-hander, who won 19 games in each of the last three seasons, was in a happy mood at Clearwater, Fla., saying he beat teammate Larry Jackson in golf Sunday with a 77 "and figured I could afford to take less than I wanted."

Another veteran pitcher, southpaw Steve Barber of Baltimore, came to terms Monday, but there was a condition put in his contract. His arm

Minority Gets Chance to Block Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Supreme Court today gave minority stockholders the opportunity to block the Missouri Pacific Railroad's planned consolidation with the Texas & Pacific.

By a vote of 8-0, the court held a majority of holders of both classes of MoPac stock must consent to the consolidation.

The decision, announced by Justice Tom C. Clark, said a Missouri law must be applied to the consolidation. This reversed a ruling the U.S. Circuit Court in St. Louis.

Clark said that the court was not passing on the merits of the merger itself. This he said is the concern of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The Baltimore Orioles were shut out only seven times last year.

It is interesting to know that no sooner had Paris showings ended than U. S. buyers and editors flew right back to New York and started viewing the American summer collections.

For one thing, bosoms are back. The flat-chested look is out and every girl had better take a second look at her stock of bras.

Dresses are tailored close to the figure. They skim along the body lines and belts are placed low. Skirt hems are a little longer. However, we in the South would still have to shorten ours to reach the length they are wearing.

Necklines are deeply slashed in front or back. The little high jewel neckline we have treasured so long is on the way out.

And all of this brings us to Rayley's where we are constantly getting new styles. Every time the postman rings twice, we unload packages and we all scramble to open them to get the first look.

Easter is early this year and that makes it very important for you to select that new something to wear right NOW!

state insurance commissioner. The NBCU told Harkley that "in view of the questions at the hearing concerning commissions to producers on Arkansas automobile liability business and your general inquiries on expense data, we will compile and study appropriate data. These data, when analyzed, will be submitted to you before any new filing is made."

The NAUA said it was withdrawing because of the bureau's action.

Five witnesses were scheduled to testify in the bureau action and only two had appeared. They were bureau personnel. The association testimony was to have followed completion of hearings on the bureau's request.

Harkey and George Shadoun of Washington, attorney retained by the state Insurance Department for the hearing, had placed the two bureau spokesmen through intensive questioning and cross examination.

Most of the questioning centered on the bureau's methods of arriving at a rate figure and whether or not investment income of insurance companies was considered, and if so, to what extent.

The rate-making groups filed their requests with former Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs last Nov. 17. Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus immediately protested and filed as an intervenor in the case. The hearing date was postponed twice.

At Huntsville, Faubus said, "I don't think they withdrew just to get more data. I think they knew they were losing their case."

Faubus said he believed the groups had been winning rate increases in other states because those states had not prepared cases against them as strong as was Arkansas' case.

Methods used in rate-making were generally not questioned until recent years when the states of Maryland, Virginia and Kentucky took up these matters in hearings.

Faubus said he did not think the groups would file for an increase anytime soon, but that it was possible he would intervene against them again if they did.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller issued a statement saying the hearing was conducted "in an orderly and systematic fashion and obviously the evidence worked in favor of the people of Arkansas. I cannot be happier."

"I pledged to the people, when I asked for their vote, that the affairs of the Insurance Department . . . would be a matter of public concern to me," he said. "I think that our people have seen this concern reflected in this insurance hearing."

VICAR NOT PLEASED

WORCESTER, England (AP) — The Rev. Malcolm Richards, vicar of St. John's, Worcester, is fighting a plan by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to build a Mormon temple in his parish.

He claims that the land's former owner had wanted a hall of unity for the use of local Anglicans and others to be built there.

"I am astonished that the Mormons who have a breath of Zoroastrianism and a tang of Salt Lake City should be allowed to build a temple here," he said when told that the local council approved the project.

Snowden Has Denied Rumor of a Rift

By REILMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent
NEW YORK (AP) — Lord Snowden, emphatically denying divorce rumors, is looking forward today to joining his wife, Princess Margaret, in the Bahamas Islands for a brief winter vacation.

"How do they start?" he asked, referring to the rumors. Then, with an infectious grin, he said, "It's news to me, and I would be the first to know."

He is meeting his wife, sister of Queen Elizabeth II, at the airport in London March 9. He declined to say how long he would stay in New York or where they would vacation in the islands.

Thereafter, he said, they would go on together to London. He flew to New York Sunday night from Tokyo. He had been working in Japan for four weeks on what he called an "essay" with text and photographs of Japanese life. Lord Snowden is a professional photographer.

He said that during his absence, he and Princess Margaret had corresponded regularly. In fact, he added, his latest letter to her was written on the airplane coming from Tokyo and mailed in Seattle, Wash.

The princess displayed no outward concern with the rumors Monday night as she attended the charity premiere of a new film version of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew," starring Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor.

Wearing white satin-silk trimmed with white mink and diamond and turquoise jewels, she talked with Burton, actor Laurence Harvey and Mda Farrow, Frank Sinatra's wife. As she left the theater, members of the audience in the foyer applauded and the princess smiled happily.

London newspapers gave banner headlines to Snowden's denial of the divorce rumors, coupling their front-page stories with pictures of the smiling princess at the movie premiere. The Daily Mail said Snowden's statement "may startle the traditionalists" — because members of the royal family normally do not comment on their personal lives — but "his frank and clear words . . . (have) destroyed the rumors."

As Antony Armstrong-Jones, Snowden married Princess Margaret May 6, 1960.

They have two children, Viscount Lisle, born Nov. 3, 1961, and Lady Sarah Armstrong-Jones, born May 1, 1964.

Lord Snowden said rumors that the princess is expecting another child also are without foundation.

CARR GETS THE CAR

NEW YORK (AP) — Henry Carr, former Olympic runner, scored a touchdown for the Giants last Nov. 13 when he intercepted a Los Angeles Rams pass and ran 101 yards.

It was the longest run of the year in the National Football League. William Mennen Jr. presented Carr with a new car for his feat.

The second child of a family of modest means, Carr was born here Nov. 28, 1901. He was commissioned into the army at 21, as a military academy graduate.

He retired from the ranks in 1935, after a four-year stint as inspector general.

Tennessee Waltz Was Almost Halted

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Wallflower Alabama stopped the music momentarily on the Tennessee waltz toward the Southeastern Conference basketball title Monday night, but the Vols danced on.

Eighth-ranked Tennessee got its feet tangled at Tuscaloosa and tripped over the Crimson Tide 53-50, but managed a half-game lead when Mississippi State swept Vanderbilt off the floor 74-71 at Starkville.

Florida broke in on Vanderbilt and replaced the Commodores in second place. The Vols are 13-3, Florida 13-4 and Vanderbilt 12-4 in their whirl for the crown and an NCAA tournament bid.

The dance floor in the Big Ten cleared somewhat as Indiana protected its narrow lead by stepping lightly past Michigan 38-36 at Ann Arbor.

Michigan State broke a four-way tie for second by setting down Ohio State 74-63 for its 10th straight victory at home, while Purdue bumped Iowa out of the runner-up spot 78-75 at Iowa City.

The Hoosiers stand in the spotlight with a 3-3 record with the Spartans next at 7-4. Northwestern and Wisconsin, both 4-3, are 3-4 and Iowa is 6-5.

Western Kentucky and Texas Western, with NCAA bids wrapped up, protected their Top Ten rankings with ease. The third-ranked Hilltoppers crowned Austin Peay 118-75 at Bowling Green and the Miners, No. 3, pushed aside Arizona State 51-51 at Tempe.

Independents Georgia Tech and Chicago Loyola, trying to cut in on an NIT bid, breezed along while another hopeful, Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference, stumbled.

The Engineers 17-9, paced by Ted Tomasovich's 27 points, stopped Miami of Florida 90-84 while Jim Tillman scored 39 points as Loyola, 14-9, clobbered Bowling Green 110-93 for its fifth straight victory.

But Clemson, 17-7, lost a 69-60 lead as Virginia's Chip Case scored 27 points in a 73-71 upset. Alabama, 6-15 in the SEC, stepped on Tennessee's feet by outbounding and outdefending the nation's defensive leader.

Gary Ludwig's only point of the game gave the Tide a 53-50 lead. Ron Widby scored for Tennessee with 38 seconds left and the Vols got one more chance, but Tom Hendrix missed a shot at the buzzer.

Vanderbilt had a 10-point lead early in the second half but Mississippi State 8-8 in the league, pulled ahead 62-60 on two baskets by Dave Williams. The Commodores trailed by only one with 16 seconds left, but State's Tom Payne ended any hopes with a field goal 11 seconds later.

Barry Joyner's 33 points kept Indiana ahead all the way at Michigan, but the Hoosiers needed steals by Joyner and Bill DeBeer in the final eight seconds after the Wolverines cut an 89-75 deficit.

Michigan State had little trouble as Lee Lafayette and John Bailey each scored 17 points while Purdue turned a 34-31 halftime deficit into a 70-59 lead to end Iowa's title hopes.

Dwight Smith led Kentucky Western with 27 points as the Hilltoppers celebrated the return of Clem Haskins to the lineup after he missed five games with a wrist injury. He scored 16 points.

state by cigarette distributors who receive a 6 per cent discount for placing tax stamps on cigarette packages.

The House also approved bills removing residency requirements for persons receiving welfare benefits and permitting voters to petition for special elections to name successors to elect officials who die before taking office.

In other action Monday, the Senate:

—Defeated 24-8 a bill to refund all but two cents per gallon of the state gasoline tax paid by taxicab operators licensed by a city.

—Approved 13-11 a bill adding $1 to court costs in criminal and civil cases with the revenue to go into the Justice Building Fund.

—Approved 27-5 a bill authorizing county clerks to waive the three-day waiting period for marriage licenses for military personnel.

—Amended a bill to require grand jury investigations of all elections by providing that such investigations must be conducted only when voters petition for them.

—Approved 23-7 a bill to require school boards to establish written regulations for school personnel.

—Approved 13-14 a bill to require inspection of meat and meat products sold to the public.

In other action Monday, the Senate:

—Approved 24-2 a bill to require designation of party affiliation on voter registration forms.

—Approved 23-4 a bill permitting cities to use surplus utility revenues in payment of bonds for construction of various civic improvements.

—Approved 26-0 a bill bringing the state commercial code up to date and correcting errors in the original bill.

—Approved 27-0 a bill reclassifying the state's judicial circuits in order to increase the salaries of prosecuting attorneys.

—Approved 29-1 a bill increasing the penalty for prisoners who attempt to escape from law enforcement or from the state penitentiary.

—Approved 27-0 a bill making it a misdemeanor for state officers, employees or penitentiary trustees to dispense discriminatory favors to penitentiary inmates.

—Approved 26-0 a bill to bring the state income tax withholding system into line with the federal system.

—Defeated 16-9 a bill to add permanent road structures such as precast culverts and bridges to the list of items that may be purchased by the county without taking bids.

—Approved 13-11 a bill to regulate billboards and junkyards adjacent to interstate highways.

Conviction Overturned by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court reversed and sent back to Washington Circuit Court today the conviction of Wilburn Davis on a charge of false pretense.

The court affirmed the conviction last December, but reversed it on a rehearing dealing only with an alleged repudiation of Judge Maupin Cummings' attorney, Sam Montgomery.

According to the record, Montgomery talked with a prosecuting witness during a recess of the trial and, on cross examination, asked her about the conversation. Cummings told Montgomery he should have had permission to talk with the witness, but Montgomery said he knew of no rule against it.

"I will see about that," Cummings replied. "Go ahead. You've got to have some regulations," the judge said.

The state Supreme Court said the "rebuttal" was prejudicial error, but said its ruling was not intended to limit the right of a trial court to discipline lawyers' witnesses.

Associate Justice John Fogleman, in a dissent joined by Chief Justice Carleton Harris, said he saw no rebuke or reprimand in Cummings' language.

Former third baseman Don Hoak has left the broadcasting booth to coach with the Philadelphia Phillies.

ues to outpace increases in the advanced nations. The average rate of increase in the number of mouths to feed in poorer countries has been about double that in wealthy nations and, since 1955, has exceeded econ-

The Post Office Department, which has over 595,000 employees, is the largest nonmilitary department of the federal government. Operating from more than 33,000 post offices throughout the United States and possessions, these employees handled over 71 billion pieces of mail in 1965, says The World Almanac. A fleet of some 52,800 vehicles is maintained to speed the delivery of the mail.

This was a busy morning. At the desk adjoining mine was our C. P. A., Lewis R. Cooper of Little Rock, here to make the annual company audit. I had had coffee with him Monday morning at the Downtown motel in Little Rock, being in the capital city at the invitation of the General Assembly to make color photographs of the Senate and House chambers and memberships. Mr. Cooper was just leaving for Hope—so naturally the first question he asked me this morning was how I made out with the pictures.

I told him the Ektachromes went off to the Dallas laboratory for processing Monday night and I wouldn't know about them until their return here Thursday. And then I added: "However, I had what for a newspaperman was a most unusual experience—the senators gave me a round of applause when I was introduced."

Cooper pulled on his pipe a while, then remarked, in the flat manner of an ex-Arkadelphia boy who used to play 2nd base for Hope in the old Sunday School League back in 1928:

"So the senators applauded, did they?—I'd say the senators didn't know you very well. . ."

But even newspapermen and politicians don't fight all the time.

I was accompanied to the Capitol by Bob Jones, former Pine Bluff Commercial and Jonesboro Sun man, now with the Jungkind Co., our Little Rock photo supplier. He was splash-hitting for Garland Bosley of Jungkind, who sold us the Berkeley color machine, but who was tied up Sunday and Monday installing a big process camera at the Log Cabin Democrat in Conway, which newspaper is converting to offset printing in March.

Jones and I were introduced around the legislative chambers by Rep. Talbot Field, Jr., and Sen. Olen Hendrix, who sponsored Concurrent Resolution 32 on Feb. 9, congratulating us on the Berkeley machine and our pioneering venture in four-color printing.

Our photographic date was for 1:30 p.m. Monday, and when we got there U. S. Sen. John McClellan was addressing a joint session of the General Assembly in the House chamber. Later we met him in conversation with Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller in the lounge behind the Senate chamber. McClellan was telling Rockefeller some of the more rugged aspects of Arkansas politics, as in 1938 when he ran for the Senate but was defeated. "We had everything but money, Mr. Rockefeller," John said, "and money you do need in a campaign."

I added the commentary that McClellan was so hard pushed he mortgaged his house for campaign funds, and here in Hope I was running off McClellan circulars like Confederate currency. A lot of people worked for John in 1938, and while losing, they had the satisfaction of seeing him win in 1942.

That "second chance" experience rang a bell with Rockefeller, who also lost before he won.

Politics is a strange adventure—a cloakroom scene between an independent editor and two world famous men: A Democratic senator and a Republican governor. And certainly no fighting. For this newspaper supported both of them.

Two Bills Are Voted by WR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, declaring the state could not afford to lose from $4 million to $8 million, vetoed Monday a bill increasing the state income tax credits.

Rep. Chadd Durrett of Strong introduced the measure that would have increased income tax credit from $17.50 to $25 for an individual, from $35 to $50 for the head of a family and from $6 to $9 for each dependent.

Big Reward Offered in Natchez Death

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—A $25,000 reward was offered by the city today for the arrest and conviction of persons responsible for the death of a Negro man killed in an explosion. The victim had been given a job last week formerly held by white men.

The explosion Monday night ripped the cab of a truck being driven by Wharlest Jackson, 36, the father of six children, as he drove home from work. Police Chief J. T. Robinson said he believed a bomb had been planted beneath the truck.

The explosion was similar to one in August, 1965, when George Metcalfe, president of the Natchez branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was critically injured by a blast from under the hood of his car.

The explosion that injured Metcalfe occurred in the parking lot of the Armstrong Tire and Rubber Co. plant, which employed Metcalfe and Jackson.

NATCHEZ, Miss. (AP)—A Negro father of six children died Monday night when an explosion ripped the cab of his pickup truck.

Police Chief J. T. Robinson said he believed a bomb had been planted beneath the truck. The blast occurred as Wha Jackson, 36, drove home.

Jackson, treasurer of the Natchez branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People until last month, punched out on the Armstrong Tire and Rubber Co. plant timeclock at 8:01 p.m. Robinson said his office was notified of the explosion 10 minutes later.

Jackson, driving through a Negro residential section, had covered about half of the 20-block distance between the plant and his home when the explosion went off.

Police began an immediate investigation and impounded the wrecked truck. The FBI was inquiring to see if any federal laws had been violated.

The gasoline tank of the truck did not explode, Robinson said. There was no fire. The cab was blown away by the blast.

The director of the funeral home where Jackson's body was taken said, "It looks like he might have been sitting right on top of the bomb."

One of Jackson's fellow workers, George Metcalfe, the local NAACP branch president, was seriously injured 18 months ago when a bomb exploded beneath his car as he turned the ignition key.

Metcalfe said the NAACP would conduct a mass protest rally tonight at Beulah Baptist church.

Metcalfe, hospitalized for three months, said he had ridden back and forth to work with Jackson "until last week. He changed to another job and was going to work at a different time."

"You see, he filled an opening formerly held by a white man, mixing chemicals to spray tires," Metcalfe said.

Natchez, scene of racial turmoil throughout most of 1965, had been quiet in recent months.

"It's just a shame," said James Lambert, editor of the daily Natchez Democrat. "Everybody's been getting along just fine and everybody's been happy. There haven't been any complaints in quite some time."

Train, 4 Cars in 2 Accidents

About 2 p.m. yesterday at I. & A Switch Engine and an auto driven by Mrs. John Kitzman collided at the Division Street spur crossing. Nobody was hurt and damage was small.

At 3:50 p.m. on S. Walker an auto driven by Anna Catherine Fields hit the rear of another driven by Linda Sue Parsons. The second car was knocked into a third vehicle driven by Penny Burke. Although all three vehicles were loaded with students nobody was injured.

Investigating Officers R. Rowe and J. Brown charged Anna Catherine Fields with hazardous driving.

Ethics Group Encouraged in House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spurred by the Adam Clayton Powell case, pressure is increasing on and within the House for creation of a committee to keep tabs on ethics and conduct of congressmen.

A House decision on whether to seat Powell is scheduled Wednesday but action on the watchdog committee is somewhat farther off.

More than 40 proposals are pending before the House Rules Committee, some of whose members predict it will approve some sort of watchdog group for consideration by the House. The Senate set up such a committee several years ago. It now is investigating Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

"I feel reasonably sure that some action will be taken by the Rules Committee," chairman William M. Colmer, D-Miss., predicted today in an interview.

But Colmer said he doesn't know if it will approve creation of a new select committee—such as is favored by Rep. Charles E. Bennett, D-Fla., or the job to a House Administration subcommittee headed by Rep. Wayne H. Hays, D-Ohio.

Hays won plaudits from many members for his investigation last year of expenditures by Powell's Education and Labor Committee. The probe led to action by the Administration Committee directing the House clerk to drop Powell's estranged wife from the House payroll.

All five Republican Rules Committee members and Rep. Claude Pepper, D-Fla., favor creation of a separate committee. The outcome will hinge on the votes of the other nine Rules Committee Democrats, several of whom say they are uncertain which way to vote.

Rep. Thomas P. O'Neill, D-Mass., who says he hasn't decided which kind of committee to support, said, "If we act fast, it will probably be a select committee, but the longer it takes, the better chance there is that Hays' committee will get the job, especially once this Powell thing dies down."

The Powell case comes before the House Wednesday with virtually all leaders from each party supporting a select committee's recommendation that the Harlem Democrat be given his seat along with a stiff censure, loss of all seniority and a $40,000 assessment against his future pay.

Can See No Evidence of Gambling

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Prosecutor Richard B. Addison of Little Rock said Monday he was "satisfied that the State Police possess no evidence of open, flagrant and continuous gambling in Pulaski County."

Addison made his statement after questioning Col. Herman E. Lindsey, State Police director, for more than two hours. The prosecutor had subpoenaed Lindsey for questioning regarding the Westwood Club of Little Rock and the Diamond Club in North Little Rock.

Lindsey's sworn statement said State Police "possessed no evidence regarding gaming violations at the Diamond Club or the Westwood Club," Addison said.

Meanwhile, Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said that when and if gambling raids are conducted in the state it will be up to Lindsey.

Rockefeller issued an ultimatum last week that local authorities had better act to stop illegal gambling operations or he would have the State Police do it.

The deadline for acting on Rockefeller's ultimatum was noon Monday but early today there were no reports of any gambling raids in the state.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two national automobile insurance rate-making bureaus withdrew Monday night their requests for increases in liability, comprehensive and collision insurance rates in Arkansas.

A public hearing on the proposed increases began Thursday and was to have resumed at 9 a.m. today.

The two groups—the National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters and the National Automobile Underwriters Association—cited the trend of the three days of hearings as the reason for the withdrawal.

The NBU was requesting an average 20.6 per cent statewide increase in liability rates and the NAUA was seeking an average 3.6 per cent increase in comprehensive and collision rates.

Announcement of the withdrawals was made in telegrams to John Norman Harkey, the

McClellan Urges Unity in Legislature

By ROBERT L. SHAW

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., called Monday for full prosecution of the Vietnam war, including bombing "every military installation of the enemy."

McClellan said he thought the bombing would shorten rather than prolong the war.

"Nobody wants it (the war), everybody regrets it," McClellan said. "But we're in it and we know our boys are over there dying and I propose to support them."

McClellan, speaking to a joint session of the Arkansas Legislature, said the country should be wary of increased national spending, especially because of the war.

"It is time for Democrats and Republicans to stop, look and listen before piling more and more obligations on the people of the United States," he said. McClellan said President Johnson had submitted 10 messages containing "a substantial package of legislative proposals" to the current session of Congress. Some are far-reaching, controversial and expensive, the senator said, and he expected one, the new civil rights bill, to "linger and die" in the Senate Judiciary Committee.

He said there was "no enthusiasm in Congress for it." He said, however, that he looked with favor on the President's Safe Streets and Crime Control Act, which would aid state and local governments in improving law enforcement. McClellan deplored the spread of crime in the nation.

He said the growing crime rate could be attributed to several factors, among them recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions. He said he hoped to nullify some of the decisions with his bill allowing a trial judge to hear a confession and then decide whether to permit it to be heard by a jury if he finds no coercion.

McClellan said the state had benefited greatly from federal grants, but he cautioned that Arkansas should keep government on a sound fiscal basis. He said other states with growing debts were frightening away industry.

He also urged the legislators to resolve disputes with the Republican state administration. He said he hoped "those issues will be resolved in the best interest of Arkansas and that her citizens will prevail."

Hoffa Goes Nearer to Jail Cell

WASHINGTON (AP)—Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa's four-year battle to avoid jail on a federal jury tampering conviction appears all but lost.

The Supreme Court opened the way for his jailing by refusing Monday to grant him a second hearing on his 1964 conviction, then choked off another avenue he might have used to stay out of jail.

The court announced—without comment—that it would not reconsider its Dec. 12 decision upholding Hoffa's conviction, eight-year prison sentence and $10,000 fine.

The labor chief's attorneys immediately sought to block his imprisonment by asking Justice Potter Stewart to delay sending the court's decision back to the U. S. District court in Chattanooga, Tenn., where Hoffa originally was convicted.

But Stewart, who supervises that district of the federal court system, turned down Hoffa's requests after conferring with the other justices. The high court's rejection then was air mailed back to the district court, which could move today or Wednesday to jail Hoffa.

Court sources said it appeared Hoffa's only remaining hope to avoid prison would be an appeal to the District Court to let him remain free on bail pending its action on motions he has already placed before it.

But U.S. Solicitor General Thurgood Marshall has said Hoffa should not be permitted to avoid prison indefinitely. He indicated any further legal moves by Hoffa could be launched and adjudicated while the labor leader was in jail.

Hoffa, 54, was convicted of tampering with a jury at a 1962 Taft-Hartley conspiracy trial in Nashville, Tenn., that ended with a hung jury.

The Circuit Court in Cincinnati at present is considering claims by Hoffa that seven male jurors were furnished with prostitutes by U.S. marshals and that the trial judge and jurors were prejudiced against him.

He also is challenging government use of Robert Vick, who worked for one of Hoffa's attorneys. Hoffa claims Vick relayed his legal defense plans to the government.

Award Goes to and AP Photographer

NEW YORK (AP)—Associated Press photographer Horst Faas, Harrison E. Salisbury of the New York Times and Ramparts magazine are among those named today as recipients of the George Polk memorial awards for significant achievements in journalism in 1966.

Faas and Salisbury, an assistant managing editor of the Times, were cited for Vietnam war coverage. Both are Pulitzer Prize winners—Faas in 1965 for Vietnam combat photography and Salisbury in 1955 for international reporting.

Ramparts, which recently made disclosures of Central Intelligence Agency funding of the National Student Association, won in the magazine reporting field.

For the first time since 1951, no radio or television honors were bestowed—although the Polk award is named for a deceased Columbia Broadcasting System correspondent.

The announcement of the 19th annual awards by Long Island University said that no entry in the radio or television field was judged sufficiently outstanding by the selection committee, made up of the university's journalism faculty.

Faas won in the news photography category, giving him in two years' time three of journalism's most coveted awards. The third is the Robert Capa award of the Overseas Press Club, which he won along with the Pulitzer in 1965 for his combat photography.

House Determined to See That Teachers Get $1,000 Pay Hikes

By GEORGE F. BARTSCH
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas House indicated Monday its determination to give each of the state's public school teachers a $1,000 salary increase during the next two school years.

It defeated a compromise bill that would have given the teachers $500 raises during 1967-68 and a minimum increase of $250 in 1968-69, barely approved another measure that would grant them average increases of $500 both years and gave its overwhelming support to a third bill that flatly guarantees the money for each teacher.

The Senate, during an 8½-hour work day that lasted from noon until 10 p.m. with an hour and a half off for dinner, approved a bill establishing a 5-member Arkansas Dairy Commission with the power to set minimum wholesale and retail milk prices and defeated a compulsory motor vehicle inspection bill on which $10 million in federal highway funds is riding.

Also approved in the House were bills to authorize permanent motor vehicle licensing and construction of a state library and history commission building.

All three teacher-pay measures were bills spelling out methods by which state aid could be distributed to school districts.

Lions Told About Work for Blind

At yesterday's Lions Club meeting at Town & Country Club, don Freel reported to the club on activities of the Arkansas Enterprises for the Blind.

The training school now has facilities for 70 trainees and a staff of 60 workers which is approaching the ideal of one worker per trainee. The school for the blind has now placed 88 full time blind operators in 70 concession stands over the state.

These stands netted over $350,000 last year, giving an average income of around $4,400 per year for the blind persons who is now an independent rather than charges of society.

The blind are being trained for telephone answering service for the Internal Revenue Department. They are also being trained as short wave radio operators to help Arkansas families contact with their men in service in Vietnam.

In the second half of the program Miss Lyndalyn Edwards, Arkansas Dairy Princess addressed the club. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Julian Edwards and her aunt, Mrs. Bonds.

Lull in War Except for Marine Move

By ROBERT TUCKMAN

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Marines made an end run on South Vietnam's central coast today, pulling out of one operation area and making a new landing 16 miles farther down the coast.

The battalion landing team of 1,500 Marines met no resistance as amtracks and helicopters put it ashore on beaches 21 miles south of Quang Ngai City.

Across the country near Cambodia, the 45,000-man U.S. force driving through Communist War Zone C reported killing 27 more of the enemy as Operation Junction City, the biggest sweep of the war, neared the end of the first week. This raised the enemy toll to 89 dead.

Five Americans were reportedly slightly wounded Monday when a bomb from a U.S. jet fell too close to an advancing unit.

A unit of the 1st Infantry Division taking part in Junction City uncovered a large Viet Cong base camp containing 22 structures and 142 underground fortifications.

The jungle campaign was supported by another heavy raid—the sixth so far—by B52 bombers, which struck early today at an enemy base camp 17 miles west of Tay Ninh City.

Little ground activity was reported elsewhere.

Poor weather conditions persisted over North Vietnam Monday, limiting American pilots to 69 strike missions.

Among the strikes, carrier planes attacked a group of cargo barges 16 miles southeast of Haiphong. Pilots reported heavily damaging one barge in this group and nine more elsewhere along the North-Vietnamese coast.

Air Force pilots attacked a transshipment point on the Ben Hai River in the middle of the demilitarized zone separating North and South Vietnam.

New Rockets Make Patrols Necessary

By JOHN T. WHEELER

SAIGON (AP)—Defensive patrols guarding allied bases in Vietnam may have to be increased greatly to counter the big Soviet rockets the Communists used for the first time Monday in attacking the American airbase at Da Nang, a U.S. military source said today.

The 140mm rockets used in the pre-dawn attack were fired from positions six miles to the south of the base. Some U.S. Marine posts extend that far from the base, but there are no conventional trench lines sealing off the area at that distance.

The 51 rockets which landed on the base and the adjoining village of Ap Do killed 12 Marines and 35 Vietnamese civilians, wounded 32 Americans and 70 Vietnamese, slightly damaged 11 planes and hit several military buildings, including barracks, the post exchange and officers club.

Until now, plans for defense of major bases have been geared mostly to stopping 81mm mortars with a range of about 2.6 miles and guarding against suicide squads carrying satchel charges which attempt to breach the bases' perimeters.

There have been instances when 120mm mortars, with a range of just over three miles, were used.

U.S. military sources said the 140mm rockets have a longer range and pack more explosives than any weapon used by the Communists to date in periodic shellings of permanent allied installations. They are also much lighter and easier to fire than mortars, making them handier to sneak into position for an attack.

While mortars weigh several hundred pounds, the rocket tubes can be carried with ease by a single man. Setting up mortar positions is time consuming, making the possibility of detection higher. The rockets, mounted on wooden frames, are touched off in groups by an electrical charge.
